

This Jazz Player Fill-In Story

Ready to write your own funny story about a jazz musician? It's as easy as one, two, three!

1. Fill in the blanks at the top of the page. Try not to look at the story while you do this!
2. Write each word from the top of the page in the blank in the story that has the same number.
3. Read your story from start to finish!

1: A noun that rhymes with "play" _____

2: A plural noun that rhymes with "knees" _____

3: An adjective _____

4: An adjective _____

5: An adjective _____

6: An animal _____

7: An animal _____

8: An adjective _____

9: A verb in past tense _____

The jazz musician loved to play

Every night and every _____ 1 _____.

Snapping fingers, bending knees,

The musician played for the birds and the _____ 2 _____.

The musician's horn was _____ 3 _____, _____ 4 _____, and bright,

It sounded _____ 5 _____ all day and night!

One evening, a/n _____ 6 _____ heard the tune

And danced with the _____ 7 _____ under the moon.

Their dance was _____ 8 _____, full of razz-a-ma-tazz,

They danced and they _____ 9 _____ to the sounds of jazz!

